

Masonry for beginners

The National Empowerment Foundation (NEF) with the collaboration of the Mauritius Institute for Training and Development (MITD) will launch a new course in masonry on September 6.

The director of the programme, Jacques Marie Jeanne, said trainees will benefit from a monthly stipend varying from Rs7,500-Rs8,000 and will also receive an allowance from the companies where they will be placed. The course lasts six months.